Christmas comes to Strathglass & Raigmore

by Brad Collins

Christmas has been & gone for another year. We hope 2018 is a wonderful and prosperous one for all our readers. Once again the shop collected toys for any children that are unfortunate enough to have spent their Christmas in hospital and Santas helpers delivered those on Christmas Eve to the Childrens ward of Raigmore Hospital. The parents & children were overjoyed at the generosity of Cannich Stores customers and we are eternally grateful as well. Its not much fun being in hospital at Christmas and this small gesture means so much to those children.

THANK YOU!

It seems not all of the Elves are overjoyed at Christmas being over for another year. One little Elf that visited the shop certainly wasn't impressed at having his photo taken

HAPPY NEW YEAR !

An award winning village

Last month we celebrated our own win when we became finalist for the Independent Retailer of the Year but this month we congratulate Susan & Alistair Mann of Westward B & B who in their first year with the inclusion of the newly built eco pods have been award Silver for Green Tourism from Visit Scotland.

For a small village at the end of the road we really do very well here in Strathglass and this award is well deserved. CONGRATULATIONS!

After 3 years....

After 3 years or more we finally manage to sell a bottle of water to someone who swore that Glassburn has the cleanest, freshest water in the world and because of this he would never purchase a bottle of water.

Perseverance pays off in the end!

Christmas Craft Fair

Thank you to all those involved in organising the Christmas Craft Fair. The day managed to raise nearly £550 for the upkeep of the Hall. A big thanks to all those who took a table as well – without you these events simply don't work.
