The dragons rise

by Brad Collins

On Wednesday 10th October grading took place at the Cannich Dojo (Cannich Hall) for 5 of the members of the Black Dragons group.

In a very impressive performance by all five students those in attendance were treated to a great display of skill and talent.

Thanks must go to the instructor and Sensai Kevin Shorthouse who does such a fantastic job training our children in the art of Hapkido.

So well done to all and congratulations to Jack, Sarah & Struan who all achieved their green belt; and to the two Dragon Warriors Murray who is now a blue belt and Sempai Jacob who achieved his purple belt.

Time is running out....

November 14th is the last day to pre-order your meat for Christmas, this year we have a great selection to choose from, drop in to the shop and place your order to ensure you don't miss out

Whisky of the Month

This is the third in a new range of experimental whiskies from the Glenfiddich Distillery. For this experiment, Malt Master Brian Kinsman travelled to Canada to meet a renowned winemaker in Niagara. There he learned how the grapes had to be picked by moonlight at -10°C to produce the intensely sweet Icewine.

Upon his return to the Glenfiddich Distillery Brian started experimenting with several French oak Icewine casks from the Canadian winery, filling them with different Glenfiddich aged malts for up to six months. Only the rarer whiskies, those aged for 21 years, could cope with the extra Icewine intensity.

The taste is a perfect combination of both pioneering liquids, the heightened candied sweets and oakiness of Glenfiddich are complemented by mouth-watering tropical fruit notes and a luscious sweetness from the unique Icewine cask finish

Tasting Notes:

Nose: A bouquet of tropical fruit and candied sweets are perfectly balanced with underlying wine notes.

Palate: Soft sweet notes reminiscent of candied fruit and Turkish delight develop into flavours of mouth watering lychee. The fusion of sweet flavours is soon met with a rich drying sensation from the Icewine

Finish: Short & Crisp.

Region: Speyside 70cl 43% vol

The end....

No, not the end of our little newsletter although I have thought about it (if you have contributions please let me know). It's the end of another season and from all reports it has been quite a good one for all.

The sun shone, the birds sang and the tourists came in droves. Last weekend however marked the end of the season as the cafés closed for the year and the hotels move to their winter hours. The Coach House Café in Tomich went out in great style with a fantastic BBQ hosted by the skilful staff and attended by a large group of thankful guests and customers.

To those that have ended their season enjoy your well earned break and see you next year, for the rest of us well I guess life goes on as we prepare for the colder months
