Ghoulish behaviour in Tomich

FREE

Thanks to all that helped

by Brad Collins

Santas little helper was busy again on Christmas Eve visiting Raigmore Hospitals Children Ward.

Once again there was plenty of extremely happy children and grateful nursing staff who were on hand to receive the massive sack of goodies.

We would like to thank everyone who donated a little something to help make the lives of those in hospital over the festive period little bit brighter.

This is the 3rd year we have organised this and again the people of Strathglass have proved to be very generous indeed.

Thanks Everyone!

December saw the passing of Jane Collins at age 88. A lovely service was conducted in Inverness on December 22nd followed by a gathering of friends and well wishers at the Slaters Arms.

Thank you!

CONGRATULATIONS

For the second year in a row we have to congratulate Eddie Noble who has once again become the A3 Class winner in the Scottish Sprint Championship Awards.

Whisky of the Month

Whyte & Mackay's big-selling entry-level blended whisky.

High quality and a great way to start working your way up through the rest of their range.

A classic blend made up of 41 different whiskies. Whyte and Mackay special is a great mixer.

Tasting Notes:

Nose: Smooth with warm appealing highlights of marzipan, Manuka honey, creamy caramel and Demerara sugar followed by whispers of glazed pineapple, cider apples and praline chocolate.

Taste: It begins with mellow and exhilarating flavours of tropical fruits, rose hip syrup, caramelized orange segments and macaroons and finishes with peaches in syrup, liquorice and Seville marmalade.

Awards:

70cl 40% vol
